

NEW CASTLE COUNTY

New Public Safety Building

New Castle County, Delaware

SGA provided consulting services to the local architecture firm of Tevebaugh Associates for the overall planning, massing, design and fitout of this 150,000 SF facility. In addition to housing all 9-1-1 and Emergency Operations Center services, the facility also contains County administration, holding, and operations. The 9-1-1 facility is a second floor facility with totally redundant systems and services. The building was designed using sustainable materials and methods to meet LEED Silver certification criteria.

Estimated completion 2007
